2. SOCIAL STATISTICS

This section presents statistics on demography, health, education and culture.

2.1 Demography

The information in this section is mainly obtained from population censuses and Demographic and Health Surveys (DHS). Mid-year population figures are based on population census as well as projections derived using annual population growth rates, fertility rates, mortality rates and migration. The mid-year population projection in the EAC region was estimated at 149.7 million persons in 2015 compared to an estimated 145.4 million persons in 2014, representing a 2.9 percent growth rate. The region's population density grew modestly from 84.7 in 2014 to 87.4 in 2015 as a consequence of the growth in population. Total fertility rate in EAC Partners States in 2015 ranged from 3.9 to 5.8 with Uganda having the highest TFR and Kenya the lowest.

2.2 Education

This section outlines indicators on net and gross enrolment rates at primary and secondary level, completion rates, transition rates, literacy rates as well as quality enhancement indicators such as pupil/student-teacher ratio and pupil/student-classroom ratio.

As shown in Table 2.2b, Kenya and Rwanda registered increases in gross primary enrolment rates in 2015 compared to 2014. However, Kenya registered significant decrease in net primary enrolment rate from 88.2 to 74.6 over the same period.

On secondary enrolment rates (Table 2.2c), Kenya recorded improved gross enrolment rate from 58.2 in 2014 to 62.9 in 2014 but net enrolment declined marginally from 48.3 to 47.8 percent during the same period. Rwanda registered slight declines in both gross and net secondary enrolment rates.

According to the available data, primary pupils/student teacher ratio in 2015 improved in Kenya and Uganda, while it remained at the 2014 level in Burundi and Rwanda. Rwanda consistently has the lowest secondary pupils/student teacher ratio in EAC since 2011.

2.5 Labour

This sub-section presents statistics about employment within the Partner States by private and public sectors. As presented in Tables 2.5a, the private sector continued to be the major employer in the Partner States for which data was available during the review period. Rwanda has consistently recorded the lowest rate of unemployment among the EAC Partner States.

2.6 Culture

This sub-section presents indicators on culture in the EAC Partner States. The framework for cultural statistics is intended to capture activities and describes the major components of the cultural sector in EAC Partner States. The cultural venues identified in the framework include the following venues and activities: art gallery; museum; animal/marine park; botanical garden; library; popular music concert; classical music concert; theatre; dance; opera or musical theatre; and other performing arts. However, the statistics on these activities have remained scanty. As shown in Table 2.6a, the total number of museums in the region has remained 19 since 2011. Rwanda has 3

(three) official languages while Uganda has 1 (one). All other Partner states have 2 (two) official languages

3. MACRO ECONOMIC STATISTICS

This section presents statistics on National accounts, Prices, Public Finance, Balance of Payments, Tourism, Money & Banking, Transport, Postal services, Communication, and Investment profiles. For comparison purposes, all indicators except otherwise stated, have been converted to US Dollars using the average annual exchange rates and end period exchange rates of the EAC Partner States for flow and stock data, respectively.

3.1 National Accounts

This sub-section presents indicators on Gross Domestic Product (GDP). The compilation of national accounts statistics in all EAC Partner States is based on the System of National Accounts 1993 (SNA93) framework.

The Partner States have been harmonising their National Account Statistics (NAS) compilation practices, with the overall objective of producing NAS aggregates that are broadly directly comparable - in terms of same coverage, compilation methods, and base periods, among other attributes – at the national level. This is expected to facilitate direct aggregation of national NAS to estimate Gross Domestic Product (GDP) for the East African Community (EAC). The specific objective of the harmonisation programme is to produce comparable NAS estimates at:

- i) Current prices (nominal) which are needed to calculate various performance ratios (e.g., tax revenue to GDP, Government debt to GDP) for the EAC macroeconomic convergence criteria.
- ii) Constant prices (real) which are needed to assess economic growth for EAC and the relative performance of the Partner States.

In this edition of the EAC facts and Figures, the NAS aggregates presented are Gross Domestic Product (GDP) for the EAC. The aggregates are derived from national NAS which were re-referenced to a common base year (2009). This is a short-term approach to facilitate aggregation pending the adoption of a common base period of 2015 by the end of 2017. The re-referenced national NAS tables have been annexed for ease of reference.

3.2 Prices

This sub-section presents indicators on price indices, interest and exchange rates.

3.2.1 Consumer price index

The weights used for the computation of consumer price indices were derived from the household budget expenditure surveys, conducted by respective EAC Partner States in varied time periods. The base period for Kenya is 2009 Rwanda is 2014 and Tanzania is 2010, while for Burundi is 2013 and Uganda is 2009/10. In 2015, Kenya recorded the highest annual headline inflation of 6.6 percent, among the EAC Partner States, while Uganda registered the highest annual underlying inflation of 5.6 percent. Rwanda recorded the lowest annual headline inflation and annual underlying inflation of 2.5 percent and 2.1 percent, respectively.

3.8 Communication Services

The access and use of Information and Communication Technology (ICT) is essential for the development of the EAC region, both from an economic and social viewpoint. ICT is growing at a fast rate in region but the reported statistical indicators to measure this development are not adequate. The main ICT indicators currently available on a regular basis are related to fixed telephones, mobile subscriptions, and the number of radio and TV stations. With the exception of public payphones which have somewhat stagnated, all other available indicators point to sustained growth in the sector across the EAC region.

4.2.2 Energy Exports and Imports

Details of energy exports and imports are presented in Table 4.2c. Volume exports of electricity for Kenya increased by 61.4 percent while Uganda dropped by 27.6 percent in 2015. Electricity imports for Tanzania increased by 20.3 percent.

The value of imports of petroleum products significantly declined in all Partner States due to the decrease of oil prices on the world market during 2015.

4.2.3 Energy Use and Prices

Data on electricity demand and electricity tariffs by type of customer are presented in Tables 4.2d and 4.2e, respectively. Electricity demand maintained an upward trend in all the three Partner States where data for 2015 was available. There were slight tariff reductions in all categories of customers in Kenya. Electricity tariffs for domestic customers remained higher than those of other categories of customers in all Partner States.

The percentage share of electricity valued added to GDP for Tanzania reduced to 1.0 percent, while that for Uganda and Kenya remained at 1.0 percent in 2015.
